

Identifying Your Community of Interest Worksheet

This worksheet is designed to help you and your partners to identify and become familiar with your community of interest. Use this sheet to work with your partners to begin to identify and define your community.

1. What is our community of interest? (i.e., an organization, a neighborhood, a specific population)

2. Name of organization/community:

3. Who are subgroups in our community of interest?

4. What are the geographic boundaries, if applicable?

5. What are our shared social and cultural characteristics?

6. Approximate size, in number of our community's population (subgroups):

7. Which level(s) of prevention do we wish to consider? (e.g., primary, secondary, tertiary)

8. What are potential conditions we would like to address? (e.g., health, economic, social, environmental)
